

MEDIA ADVISORY

Saturday, August 9, 14

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Evacuation Order issued for the area around the eastern boundary of the Lodge Complex Fire.

Contact: Lodge Complex Information Line, (626) 622-7927

What: An Evacuation Order has been issued for the area around the eastern boundary of the Lodge Fire in the following areas:
Camp Seabow, Elder Place, Tan Oak Park, Bald Mountain Ranch, Mad Creek, Elk Creek east of Brush Mountain

An “Evacuation Order,” means there is an imminent threat to life and property in the affected areas and people in these areas should leave the affected area immediately.

Please visit www.wildlandfirersg.org for information on how to prepare for an evacuation.

Cooperating Agencies: Bureau of Land Management, Laytonville Fire Department, Leggett Fire Department, Cahto Tribal Council, Mendocino County Sheriff’s Office, Laytonville Water District, Department of Fish and Wildlife, California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, California National Guard, California Conservation Corps, and CAL OES, and American Red Cross.

###